

London's Natural History - Past, Present and Future

Saturday 11 October 2008
at the Linnean Society, Burlington House, London W1J 0BF

This one-day conference, organised by the London Natural History Society in association with the Linnean Society and the Society for the History of Natural History, marks the 150th anniversary of the founding of the London Natural History Society

Programme:

Chair of the morning session: Mark Burgess, President, LNHS

- 10.00 Registration
- 10.30 Opening address - Dr Helen Phillips (Chief Executive, Natural England)
- 10.45 The Amateur Naturalist - David E. Allen (author of The Naturalist in Britain)
- 11.30 The Thames since 1858 - Dr. Ian Tittley (Natural History Museum)
- 12.15 London's Bugs and Beetles - Dr Maxwell Barclay (Natural History Museum)
- 13.00 Lunch

Chair of the afternoon session: Professor Arthur Lucas, President SHNH

- 14.00 Birds in and around London - David Darrell- Lambert (LNHS)
- 14.45 Urban Mammals - Prof. Pat Morris (Royal Holloway College)
- 15.30 Tea
- 16.00 London's Changing Flora - Dr. Mark Spencer (Natural History Museum)
- 16.45 " 2058 - Will London's Nature just be History? " - Prof. David Goode
- 17.30 Close

To reserve a place (£20, includes lunch) please print this page, detach and complete the form below, and send together with a cheque for £20 and a stamped self-addressed envelope to:
Catherine Schmitt, 4 Falkland Avenue, London N3 1QR.
Please indicate if you are a member of the LNHS, the SHNH, or the Linnean Society.

---

London's Natural History - Past, Present and Future

11 October 2008

Please reserve me a place for the conference. I enclose a cheque for £20 (payable to London Natural History Society) and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Name: .....

Address: ..... I am a member of:
(Please tick)

.....  London Natural History Society

.....  SHNH

Postcode: .....  Linnean Society

Email: .....  None of the above

Telephone: .....

Please post this form to: Catherine Schmitt, 4 Falkland Avenue, London N3 1QR